

MASP Core Values Form

One of the criteria for MASP membership is that the executive leadership of applicant organization must acknowledge acceptance and support of the MASP Core Values as a framework for living and working together within the MASP. This acknowledgment can be communicated via a letter on company letterhead signed by the Executive Director or by affixing the signature of an individual serving in executive leadership to this form. Although the following documentation is not required, we do welcome receipt of organizational minutes reflecting the leadership team's or board's fulfillment of this criteria.

MASP Core Values

- ❖ Biblical Authority – We recognize the Bible as our final authority for faith and practice and strive to reflect its teachings in the structure and organization of any program we administer.
- ❖ Mutuality – We are committed to, “Bear one another’s burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2 NKJV)” recognizing that mutual aid is both reciprocal and synergistic.
- ❖ Community – We are a community of Christ-centered organizations committed to supporting each other in the arena of health care benefits and beyond.
- ❖ Flexibility – We embrace flexibility to remain relevant in the ever-changing arena of health care benefits recognizing that our primary purpose is to support member organizations as they provide customized health care benefits for their employees.
- ❖ Stability – We are committed to maintaining the stability provided through the foundational blocks of Anabaptist values, spread of risk, and a focus on the long-term.
- ❖ Stewardship – We welcome our role as stewards of the time, financial and other assets God has entrusted to us and strive to utilize them in such a way that we gain the greatest return giving him the greatest glory.
